THRASHLEY CHAPMAN

To Mississippi 1815

2d Thrashley Chapman son of John and Mary Allen Chapman b 26 May 1772 Spotsylvania Co. Va. d ca 1826 Wayne Co., Miss. m Society Hill, S. C. 22 Dec. 1795 Catherine Edwards b 22 Sept. 1771 Society Hill, S. C. d Wayne Co. Miss. dau of Abel and Sarah Harry Edwards of Society Hill, S. C. (see Edwards line) Burial place not known. A tomb was placed at the grave of Thrashley Chapman by his grandson Rev. James Chapman many years ago, later generations have been unable to find it but we assume that he was buried near "Chapman's Bluff" on the Chickasahay River.

Little is known of the life of Thrashley (Streshley) Chapman after the death of his parents. His brother Allen Chapman was his guardian and Thrashley was present when Allen Chapman was made sheriff in 1887 in the Cheraw District in South Carolina. Apparently Allen and Thrashley Chapman lived with their grandparents Erasmus Withers and Sarah Allen as Allen Chapman was named as one of the executors of Erasmus Withers Allen will in Rowan County, North Carolina. All of the daughters of the Allen family went to South Carolina and that is where Allen and Thrashley Chapman were found ca 1784 in the Cheraw District. Two of Thrashley Chapman's first cousins William and Alexander Powe came to Mississippi in 1811 and Thrashley Chapman was listed on the 1816 census. Elizabeth Ann Watts dau of Thrashley was six years old when her parents came to Mississippi. (Abstract of Goodspeed's-Gillis p 1002) Thrashley Chapman lived near his brother Allen Chapman and was voted a member of St. David's Society in 1808 where some of his children attended school in Society Hill, S. C.

Thrashley Chapman bought 975 acres in Wayne County and had ten children and 31 slaves in the 1820 census. The Chapman's lived near Winchester a thriving little town at that time and where some of the greatest statesmen of that day lived. It was a direct road from the Carolinas and Georgia, via St. Stephens, Alabama to Natchez on the Mississippi. Many Georgia and Carolina families migrated there and established businesses and homes. Tuesdays and Fridays were stage coach days in Winchester and red letter days for the stage brought letters, passengers and news from the outside world. In the early days trade boats plied the river some of them carrying passengers and in the winter season when the water was up people bought all their supplies from [illegible]ese boats. After the death of Thrashley Chapman in 1826 the children began to migrate to other counties and states. Judge John Watts and wife Elizabeth Ann Chapman Watts came first to Garlandsville, Jasper Co. and settled. Edward Edwards Chapman lived with them and lived there until 1839 then came to Newton County and settled. Abel Chapman an older brother came to Newton Co. earlier than Edward Chapman both settled in adjoining neighborhoods and their descendants live there today. Two brothers William Thrashley and Thomas James Chapman married McIntosh sisters and went first to Kemper Co., Miss. and then to Louisiana. Little is known of John Alexander Chapman the elder son of Thrashley Chapman. Mary Allen Chapman who m Alexander Craig Powe apparently was in Kemper Co Miss. Sarah Harry Chapman who married William Henry Pegues Powe must have lived part time in that section of Wayne Co. Samuel Willis (Wilds) went to Texas. Today there is nothing of evidence to show that Thrashley and Catherine Edwards Chapman lived on "Chapman's Bluff" but the Chickasahay continues to flow as it did when the Chapman's came in 1815 with their ten children and 31 slaves and settled there many years ago.

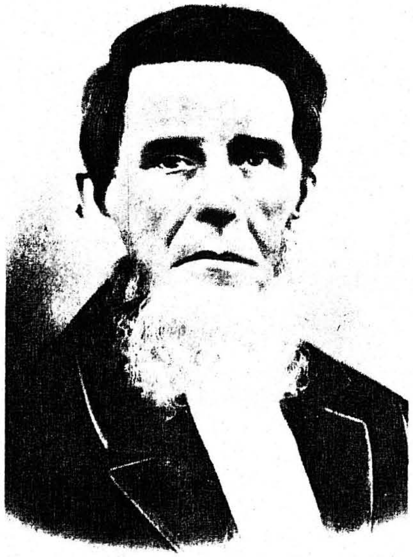
ABEL EDWARD CHAPMAN



Abel Edward Chapman

Susan Evans Chapman

3d Abel Edward Chapman son of Thrashley and Catherine Edwards Chapman b 11 Oct 1802 Chesterfield County South Carolina d 2 Dec 1875 Newton County Miss m 1826 Susan Evans b 28 Nov 1810 Society Hill, S.C. They with several of the children are buried on the old home place four miles south of Newton, Miss. near Highway 15. William B. Chapman who compiled the family history of Abel Chapman line has in his possession some of Abel Chapman's textbooks including geometry and trigonometry which contained a treatise of surveying published by Oliver D. Cook, Hartford; Samuel T. Armstrong printer, of Boston, Mass. a tax receipt made in favor of Abel's father Thrashley Chapman dated May 9, 1816 for $31.39 for his general poor tax for the year 1815, signed A. M. Neil C.C.D.

In 1838 of Personal Tax Roll for Newton County, by Richard S. Lackey, Abel Chapman is listed as 1 white poll -4 slaves. He moved to Rayville, La. and stayed about a year returning to Newton County, Miss. brought with him the first sugar cane in that section of the state. Abel was a farmer and surveyor and his services were in great demand and he taught his brother Edward to become a proficient surveyor.

In contrast to his high-tempered and rather large wife, Abel was a mild mannered man. He owned two large sections of land and had many slaves. They raised four sons to maturity and all four fought in the war. Abel was a charter member and elder of Mt. Moriah Presbyterian Church which was organized in the 1840's.

4c John Evans Chapman son of Abel Edward and Susan Evans Chapman b 12 March 1832 Rayville La d 25 July 1905 Newton County, Miss. m 6 Jan 1853 Susana Evans b 14 Oct 1835 dau of Henry Evans a friend and neighbor. They are buried in the Henry Evans Cemetery five miles south of Newton. John and Susana homesteaded near Garlandsville, Miss. the land being given to them by both fathers in Jasper County, Miss. When the War between the States came John enlisted with the Garlandsville Rifles and Susana stayed at home and ran the farm as best she could with the help of some faithful Negroes and relatives. Things were not easy as a demented Negro girl set fire to the home and was completed destroyed. Some old men and young boys rebuilt the home for her which was made of native pine logs which stood until 1925.

When General Grierson raided that section of the county, Susana sent all the livestock meat and other food into the swamp which could be buried except one mule which refused to be caught so the Yankees got him.

John's life in the army was very colorful and he enjoyed telling stories about it. He taught the soldiers how to cure the itch by applying lye soap from a gourd and then jump into a stream, one officer failed to jump into the stream and was uncomfortable for several days. When his brother Julius took a dangerous risk was killed on the battleflield, was buried by his brother John on the battlefield.

John was a tenderhearted man even though he was gruff and rugged. He was tall of statue and very broad of shoulder. After the war John returned home and heart break continued to plague him as two small sons died with congestive chills in two days time. A few years later Susana became an invalid and spent the rest of her days in a wheel chair.

John did many things with his hands and he liked to read especially the Bible. He was not a doctor but did much to help the sick and he had a host of friends who visited him often. He provided well for his family and there was always a bounteous food supply.

5g William Thrashley Chapman, son of Thrashley and Catherine Edwards Chapman, b 26 March 1807 Chesterfield Co., S.C. d 8 June 1869 Alto, La. (Franklin Parish now Richland) buried Little Creek Methodist Church. This church was founded by William Thrashley Chapman. When William Thrashley Chapman was a boy his father Thrashley Chapman moved from Cheraw, S. C. to the Miss. Terr. and settled on what became known as Chapman's Bluff. This was a high bluff on Chickasawhay River in Wayne Co., Miss. In census of 1830 William Thrashley Chapman was in Greene Co., Miss with a wife. In 1838 William Thrashley Chapman bought land in Noxubee Co., Miss. from a cousin Cornelius R. McCaskill who was a trustee for the Kemper and Noxubee Real Estate and Banking Co. This land was located in Kemper and Noxubee Cos., near the town of Wahalah. This land was good farm land being located in the black belt. In about 1853 William Thrashley Chapman bought land from a brother-in-law, Dr. William S. McIntosh in Franklin Parish, Louisiana (now Richland Parish) William Thrashley Chapman did not want to move to Louisiana but his wife Harriet McIntosh Chapman wanted to move with her two brothers Dr. John Perkins McIntosh and Dr. William S. McIntosh. William Thrashley Chapman settled on Little Creek 3 miles east of Alto, La. William Thrashley Chapman married Harriet McIntosh in about 1828 in Greene Co., Miss. 3h Elizabeth Ann Chapman dau of Thrashley and Catherine Edwards Chapman b 2 March 1809 Chesterfield Co., S. C. d 16 Oct. 1853 Neshoba Co., Miss. m 4 Jan. 1826 Wayne Co., Miss. Judge John Watts b 26 May 1805 Chesterfield District, S. C. d 25 May 1875 Newton, Miss. Buried in Galrandsville, Miss. son of Josiah and Margaret Evans Watts who came to Wayne Co., Miss. in 1812 Passport 14 Nov. 1812. (Jackson Archives) Information on the Judge John Watts family given by Mrs. Heber Logan (Judy Watts) Newton, Miss. Material from a scrapbook kept by Misses Betty and Lizzie Watts who collected newspaper clippings from "The Newton Record, Mississippi Baptist and Meridian Star.

John Watts attended St. Stephen's Academy which was at that time the most flourishing Institution near by. It was located on the Tombigby River. He later studied medicine but did not persue the career although he was a fairly good doctor if there was a need. He returned home and read law and obtained a license from the Supreme Court in 1831, and practiced law in Winchester, Miss. He was elected District Attorney and held that office for 11 years. Judge Watts rose to distinction in the State and held many public offices. He was a man of commanding presence and great purity of character and had a remarkable dignity of manner, but when to his great personal and intellectual advantages were added the graces of a sweet and gentle nature this was his secret of his popularity in East Mississippi. Having served the people as a Senator and Representative in the Legislature and for many years Judge of the Judicial District, he then joined the Methodist Church in Paulding, Mississippi in 1841 and in 1842 received a license to preach. He resided in the Counties of Wayne, Jasper, Neshoba and Newton. He died in Newton in 1875. Judge Watts married 2nd Mrs. Martha Keegan wife of Judge A. M. Keegan of Monticello, Miss. No Issue by this marriage.

Elizabeth Ann Chapman Watts (scrapbook newspaper). Died at her residence in Philadelphia, Miss. Mrs. Elizabeth consort of Hon. John Watts while presiding on the bench of the Circuit Court of Wayne County. How much he had lost by one fell stroke of the sombre angel who this year has strewn our Southern soil with tombs. The wife of 28 years was dead and "dust had been consigned to dust" during the absence of the devoted husband, she whose affection had long sustained him, whose devotion was tried during the severest ordeals of lifes' vissitudes. She was "no more forever" and her eyes had closed, and her true heart beat its last pulsation while he whom she loved, as only woman can love was far away, unconscious of her last earthly agony and his own great irreparable loss.

As a mother, how beautiful was the life of the deceased, as a wife how exemplory and as a Christian how luminous with the rays of a piety never cold and never dim. Mrs. Watts was for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the last awful transition when this life was to be exchanged for eternity, that faith in the Redeemer sustained her, and was a flaming sun to light her way through the gloomy gulf of death. (Probably buried Philadelphia, Miss.)

In 1848 Josiah Thrashley Watts studied medicine in Louisville Ky and completed his course in 1849 and started practice in Philadelphia Miss. After he married they moved to Enterprise, Miss. a flourishing town at that time and then later moved to Garlandsville, Miss.

In 1861 he became depot agent for the A&V RR in Newton, Miss. and discontinued the practice of medicine.

In the same year he started a Sunday School in a log house and was the superintendent for many years. He was also a steward and trustee and was a fervent man of prayer. Josiah Thrashley and his wife Jane spent their lives looking after the welfare of their loved ones. They reared his niece Corrie Watts whose mother died when she was very young whose father was Thomas Watts who also lived in Newton. So many of the loved ones lived and died in the home. They lived to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary in September, 1900. Their lives were spent in doing good for others. All this family buried in the Baptist Cemetery in Newton, Miss.

(Information on Alfred John Brown is from the Newton Record 2 March 1966 written by Miss Kate Williams of Garlandsville, Miss.)

Hamilton Brown sold his Wayne County holdings in 1833 and moved to Garlandsville, Miss. The Browns first lived in an Indian cabin but soon built with slave labor a log house and in this house is where Alfred John Brown was born. I quote from Alfred Brown's own description of this home: "This new home was in a wild frontier country with very few white neighbors and thousands of Indians who had refused to emigrate with the first removal of Choctaws. The Brown family lived there in perfect safety. My father was often away for several weeks but my mother felt safe with two small children and a family of slaves." Throughout the life of Alfred John Brown he had a tender feeling for the Indian and took great interest in having them educated and Christianized. He was instrumental in bringing the first Christian missionary among them in Jasper and Newton counties. He attended a boarding school in Montrose, Miss. later there was a good village school in Garlandsville and he attended there.

After his marriage in 1861 to Cornelia Watts and after the war had ended he moved to Newton, Miss. Here he was engaged in the merchantile business but ill health caused him to sell his store and he worked for M. J. L. Hoye and Co. until

Mr. Hoye's death. Later he opened a hotel known as the Brown House. Mr. Brown had a great feeling for history. He said in his memoirs that he thought everyone who has any pride of family relations, and a desire to perpetuate their memories, should express it in writing so, that much of history that is known only to close relatives, would be known by others.

He was a member of the Mississippi Historical Society and contributed one or more articles every year for publication. (A. J. Brown wrote and published the "History of Newton County" the only early history of that county that we have record.) Buried in Baptist Cemetery, Newton, Miss.

Sarah Wells b 4 Oct. 1826 d 4 Oct. 1902 Bethel Community, Newton County, Miss. dau of Col. Archelus Wells, Decatur, Miss. Edward Edwards Chapman was ca three years old when Thrashley and Catherine Edwards Chapman moved from Chesterfield, S.C. to Wayne County, Miss. and settled on the Chickasawhay River. Thrashley Chapman d ca 1825-26 and Edward Edwards Chapman made his home with his sister Elizabeth Ann Chapman who married Judge John Watts. They moved to Garlandsville, Miss. (Jasper County) ca 1830. He m Talitha M. Toole in 1832. "History Of Jasper Co." by J. M. Kennedy (Jackson Archives) States that E. E. Chapman lived in a house built by missionaries to the Indians from the New England States. They had erected a comfortable log-house two stories high. It had a stick and dirt stack chimney and large cellars under two of its rooms. The location of this house was on some of the finest land in Jasper County. Edward Chapman made thirty-three bales of cotton on thirty-three acres of this land. Edward Chapman was appointed Constable of Jasper County by the third Governor of the State, Charles Lynch 1837.

A document found in Edward Edwards Chapman's trunk revealed he went to the school of the undersigned two hundred and thirty days for which he paid thirty-three dollars, signed by J. R. Cox.

Garlandsville was the oldest town in Jasper County in 1833. It was a most inviting site, level and healthy and was settled by wealthy planters, which gave it importance. One of the earliest families was that of Judge John Watts. (History Of Jasper Co.)

Edward Chapman moved to Newton County in 1839. The first home was built of logs, as most all homes in the early days were. Miss Mary Simmons granddaughter of Edward Edwards Chapman has passed on to us the history of the old home, and the lives of the loved ones who lived there. "Farming was Edward Chapman's main business. He also settled estates and was a surveyor who helped survey the

A&V Railro that came through Newton, Miss. Their crops were cotton and corn and they had crude tools to farm with. Cotton was ginned on horse gins, they left the cotton seeds in the fields for fertilizer for the following year, as there was no market for them. They took their cotton in wagons to Mobile, Alabama to sell which took several weeks for the trip, bringing back supplies to last for a year. They also went to Louisiana yearly to the salt mines. During the War Between the States they dug up the dirt from the smokehouse and boiled it in order to have salt for food. Edward Chapman had fifty slaves and it was no small task to weave and make the cloth and then sew by hand all the clothes for those who lived on the plantation. When they could not buy buttons they made them from gourd and pumpkin seed. The hides of cows were tanned and made into shoes by the slaves. Soap was made by ashes stored in hoppers with grease and lye added, then boiled down, cooled and cut into squares. The slaves were all taught a different occupation. Some were blacksmiths, some were good carpenters and others made shoes. There was a maid and cook for the "big house." If a slave child was ill he was carried to the big house and nursed back to health.

The slaves lived in houses made of logs, each family was given a plot of land for a garden and was allowed to sell surplus produce and they were allowed to keep the proceeds. Edward Chapman was away much of the time surveying the A&V Railroad which extended from Alabama to Vicksburg, Miss. The slaves took care of the plantation and looked after 'Old Miss' and the children while 'Old Marse' was away.

At the close of the war many of the slaves stayed on the plantation and worked on halves for their master. Those who did move away always came back to visit 'Old Marse' and 'Old Miss.'

"Historical Research Project." Newton County History Assignment No. 15 April 14, 1937

The Simmons home now owned by M. B. Mary, Annie and Bird Simmons is on the same location of the first log cabin of E. E. Chapman, pioneer who came to Newton County in 1839. The first rude, split log cabin was replaced in a few years by a spacious double, hewed log house. The main rooms were connected with a wide open hallway. Two shed rooms were built on the back of the 20x20 log rooms.

With cotton selling profitably and the Negroes gr ng more cotton every year, there was soon money enough to start building a fine house. In 1857 just south of the log house the foundation was laid for the new sawed-plank house. The house was to be a big two story white house that all the rich planters were building. But as fate would have it, the house had not been completed when the war started in 1861. In 1862 the house was hurriedly completed. The two upstairs rooms were completed and used for bedrooms. The four large 18x18 rooms downstairs and the upstairs rooms were large enough to accommodate the needs of the owner's growing family.

At E. E. Chapman's death his son and daughter Robert Emmett and Olivia Chapman inherited the home.

After Robert Emmett Chapman's death his nieces and nephew Misses Annie, Bird, Mary and Bascum Simmons came into possession of the home and have resided there since.

The old home has weathered many storms, some of which were severe enough to blow down many of the stately trees on the lawn. Ref: Miss Mary Simmons.

Mr. David T. Chapman

Dear Brother. I having a chance to write to you this morning I take the pleasure this morning to write to you a few lines to let you know that I am well at present and hope these lines comes to hand will find you enjoying the same blessings of life. Dock I have no news of interest to write to you at present the boys are all well and doing tolerable well with the exception of three or four. Frank Hardy is at the hospital over town he has the chills and fever (dim can't read) Bruce got his ankle sprained the other day the balance is at work and the rest on gard all the time and we drill four hours every day. We are expecting a fight every day at Dalton or Richmond and we don't know what minute we will be ordered off from here. Dock we are in Gen. Cantys Brigade it is mostly Alabamians (dim) Doc we had a fine time on the cars coming up here. We were on the train four days a coming and we saw a lot of pretty girls on the rode. The boys hollowing at them (can't read) Dock I would like the best in the world if you were with me but don't care if you don't come until after the fight of it if it comes soon. Dock I hav't heard from home since you wrote to me you must write soon and tell me if you have heard from home lately and if you have how all are getting along.

I will close. Please excuse this badly written letter my position is a bad one to write a letter. No more from your Brother Thrashley at this time. Be sure and write and let me know how you are getting along Dock.

Pattons, Falconers and Chapmans and others lived on plantations in the northern and central parts. Every home was made of hewn logs, pinned together with wooden pins, most of them were two story with open hallways, and ceiled with 12 inch plank, planed by hand. The windows were small and had wooden shutters. The doors decorated with fancy nail patterns. The kitchens were always built a little distance from the house. They also built store houses, smokehouses and fowlhouses. By 1820 the romance of the west had touched every part of the nation. Stories of fabulous riches transformed this wild land into a mecca upon which all the eyes of the nation were turned."

Archives Of Jackson, Mississippi. History Of Wayne Co. Miss. Collected by W. P. A.

3a William Powe son of Thomas and Rachel Allen Powe b 22 Oct 1766 Cheraw District, S.C. d Wayne County, Miss (date unknown) m 10 Jan 1788 Harriet Elizabeth Marcia Pegues b 15 Aug 1770 S.C. dau of William and Elizabeth Sanders Pegues. Historical Research Project 1936 Assignment No 15 Wayne County, Miss (Jackson Archives)

William Powe moved from South Carolina to Wayne County in 1811. He secured land from the government and built a three story house not far from Bucatunna, Wayne County Miss. The house was built by Farris a carpenter by trade. The planks were hand sawed by slaves, and planed. Molding for the house was done by hand also. The mantle in the parlor is a beautiful diagonal design that reaches the ceiling, and the dining room is done in like manner. The second floor has two bed rooms as well as the third floor. They had no well, they used water from two springs. The lawn is covered with beautiful oak and cedar trees with hanging moss everywhere. Crepe myrtle is very pretty in the summer. Under these trees the Powe brothers smoked the pipe of peace with their friends the Choctaw Indians.

Before William Powe died he asked the family to bury him in a plot behind the house and he wanted no tomb at his grave. He asked that a lightwood knot be placed at his head. Until a few years ago one remained there. No tomb is found for any of the very early settlers in this cemetery. The original home is still in very good repair.

KYSER & POWE

Talladega, Alabama
Feby 26, 1890

Mr Charles S. Powe
Gonzales, Texas
Dear Cousin Charles:

Your very welcome letter just this day to hand and for fear I delay too long I write you to night after posting up my books which I do every night- If I make mistakes it is because I am tired and sleepy- I hardly know how to commence my letter, I have so much to write you but rest assured if I don't pack it into this one I will get it all down during the year- Your letter makes me want to see you and hope I will have the pleasure some time. My life has been a very busy one and I have traveled very little- Was raised in Kemper and Clark Co. Miss. until I was 12 years old- since then lived in Alabama- have lived in three different Counties, Choctaw (which joined Wayne Miss.) where all our Powe kin were born and raised- lived 3 years in Bibb County, Ala. and the balance of my life here. This my Cousin is the best Country on the Globe - for timber, farming land and above all — only 50 miles to Birmingham and Talladega is in the dead center of the best one. I will tell you more about this some other time, etc. . . . I will now try to give you the names of my grandfather's brothers- He Alexander Craig Powe was the oldest of the family- Thomas Powe- Calvin Powe- William Powe, Claudius Powe, Rufus Powe- Edwin Powe, Erasmus Powe. As I wrote you in my first letter my father was the oldest child of Alexander C. Powe and his name was Julius A. Powe died when I was six months old and I was raised at my Grandfathers until he died in 1860 Uncle William Powe was the only brother my grandfather had who lived near him and I knew him well. I also saw Uncle Edwin once- He was the youngest child and all are now dead. My Grandfather had three sisters- Aunt Eliza McIntosh, I knew as she also lived near him in Kemper County, Miss. The other two I never saw- Harriet and Maria-.

I do not live near any of our relatives- I have only one uncle- Lawrence T. Powe, Richmond, Ala., 150 miles away. I have two aunts- Aunt Harriet Perrin, New Orleans, La.; Aunt Alice Hearst, Richmond, Ala. The last named is the youngest child of my Grandfather.

I expect a letter soon from Captain Samuel Powe, Waynesboro, Miss., and I will send it to you. He is the only and oldest living Powe of your and my family. He is a first Cousin to your father- He has a son named Alexander and a very prominent man in East Mississippi. Speaking in your letter of your son Oliver reminds me of old Cousin Oliver Powe of Choctaw Co. Ala. He died after I moved down here from Clark Co. Miss. - He was a brother of Capt. Samuel Powe and his sons all live there in Choctaw now. I will give you their names and let me say right here Cousin Charles, They are all Gentlemen there is not a lazy one in the crowd and I have yet got to see a lazy no account Powe, but here are their names — Robert Alexander Powe, William Thomas Powe, Samuel Potter Powe, Oliver Edwin Powe, Henry H. Powe, Frank Harris Powe. By the way Henry H. Powe lives somewhere in Texas- is a one arm Confederate soldier- I knew him well (in fact all of them) He would fight a whole regiment of Yankees today by himself (torn). My wife was a Houston her family are from N. C. and have no relatives in this State- her name is Loraine- We have four children- Juliette 11 years; Frank Houston Powe 8; Margaret 6; Mary 2½; one boy and three girls, all fat and healthy- I will have Juliette to write you a letter soon. She and Frank go to our public school and learn very fast. We are all proud of our school etc. . .you will see at head of letter our firm, Kyser is my brother-in-law married my sister. Write and tell me all about yourself and family and if your father was not Rufus B. Powe. The names of your brothers and sisters are Powe names. I know twenty or twenty-five families and all are Marys? and Alexanders. What was your brothers full name who was J. A. Powe?

Hoping to hear from you very soon.

I am, I think
Your Cousin
Julius A. Powe.

NOTE: This letter was sent by Frances Holbrook from Texas and is very valuable as it tells much about the Powe family. Writer of this letter is 6a Son of Julius Powe and grandson of Alexander Craig and Mary Allen Chapman Powe.

Charley Gertrude Powe Stanton has contributed much to the family history in this book. She had the will of John Chapman of Spotsylvania County Va probated in 1776. She carried it to Archibald La to the older members of the Chapman family who told her it was the will of her great great grandfather. She also had the Bible record of Thrashley Chapman and the Bible of William Henry Pegues and Sarah Harry Chapman Powe. She also stated Fredrick Stanton built Stanton Hall in 1851 and that he died three months after completion of the home. Fredrich Stanton II lived there with his bride and Fredrick Stanton III was born there. She stated that Fredrick Stanton was a very rich man at that time but the Civil War came and the children lost everything. Stanton Hall is now owned by the Pilgrimage Garden Club and is one of the most palatial and imposing ante-bellum homes in the Southland. Built by Fredrick Stanton during the South's richest era when cotton was king.

Mr. Stanton spared no expense to make this the most beautiful house in Natchez. He chartered an entire ship to bring materials and furnishings from abroad, including fabulous Carrara marble mantels, enormous gold-leaf mirrors, and bronze chandeliers of unusual designs representing eras of Natchez history.

Towering fluted columns support the double-decked galleries enclosed in their wrought-iron grille rails of roses. Fluted columns also frame the massive entrance door. Four tremendous rooms, with a great hall between, form the lower

WILLIAM ALISON POWE

7d William Alison Powe son of William Alexander and Mary Pauline Lee Powe b 19 Dec 1898 m 12 April 1933 Margaret Elizabeth Thomas d 23 Feb 1970 Buried Hattiesburg, Miss.
San Juan Puerto Rico. Formally from Dallas, Texas.

The following article was published in the Clarion Ledger Jackson Miss ca 1967 on William Alison Powe.

Voice Of The People. Dear Editor: William A. (Bill) Powe of Hattiesburg is not known by all of you readers, but to thousands of Americans and Cubans scattered throughout the world he is considered an outstanding person who knows not only how to win but also how to lose. Having lived in pre-Castro Cuba where my husband the late Dykes Granberry, was in U.S. Government service for many years and I was a reporter on the Havana Post, I had the privilege of knowing Mr. and Mrs. Powe and their children, William Jr. and Ellen. In fact everyone knew them.

A veteran of World War I and a graduate of Mississippi State University, Mr. Powe is a highly successful business man and an influential citizen. In Cuba his ability to speak Spai fluently and his acquaintance with almost everyone in the American-British-Canadian community as well as in Cuban business and social circles, placed him in an advantageous position. As a result, he often was elected to head cultural and civic organizations.

Mr. Powe will be the first to admit that "he hasn't always had it so well," because for sometime he worked at a sugar mill in Cuba as a bench chemist. Then he sold machinery for sugar mills throughout Latin America. Gradually he acquired an interest in a jeep agency; and from this beginning, he built a large enterprise that include the sale of tractors and other farm equipment that was greatly needed in Cuba and on other islands. He also acquired interest in a Manganese mine. Before he knew it, he was labelled "un imperialisto" by the fast rising communist element.

In the meantime, however, he gave employment to hundreds of Cubans who otherwise would have been unemployed a greater part of each year; and for his employees he provided housing, medical care, on-the-job training, and paid his workers fair wages.

When Castro took over the country, all of Mr. Powe's holdings were confiscated. This included the Powe Machinery Companies in Havana and in Camaguey and the manganese mine in Oriente province. All the Powes have left to show for his industry and a large financial investment is a stack of "claims" for which there is no court through which he can process them for justice. The Powes left Cuba in 1959, but his warm Christian influence is still felt each Sunday morning when the chimes which he gave to the Miramar Baptist Church (built by the English-speaking congregation) call Christians to worship. In this same church Mrs. Herbert Caudill one of the four American missionaries still in Cuba plays the organ and directs a choir.

Back home in Mississippi, Mr. Powe spends much time out among the tall pines on his tree farm reflecting not on his losses, but on the seemingly irreparable losses suffered by the Cuban people. He recalls the subtle moves of the communist that resulted in a rapid succession of changes to Cuba, first from a free enterprise democratic form to a totalitarian dictatorship, then to a socialist, and now a communist form of government.

In view of the alarm felt for his country, Mr. Powe has dedicated himself to the cause of good government. He is a Boy Scout leader, a speaker at schools and civic me ngs, and presently he is a candidate for senator on the Repu ican ticket in Forrest, Lamar and Marion counties. An overall critique of Mr. Powe is that he embodies the characteristics of Rudyard Kipling desired for his son: "If you can watch the things you gave your life to broken, and stoop and build 'em up worn out tools. If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, or walk with kings, nor lose the common touch. Yours in the earth and everything that's in it, and which is more. You'll be a man my son." William A. Powe is a man my fellow Mississippians.

News Paper Clipping: "One of Gonzales County's eldest and most highly esteemed citizens, Charles Stewart Powe, was called to his final reward Tuesday Nov. 8, 1921 at 11:15 a.m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. E. Gescheidle. Mr. Powe was a native of Miss., but had made his home in Gonzales Co., for many years, residing in the Currie neighborhood, where he had a host of friends. He was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon in the old Carson Cemetery, which is located on his old home place."

Charles Stuart and Sarah Jane Carson Powe

Charles Stewart Powe was a veteran of the War Between The States, entering at the age of 15. When the war was over, he went to Texas and lived with his sister and husband the Dardens. The Dardens had an old gray mule that kept breaking the fence down and going to the home of the Carsons and Charles Stewart Powe always rode over to get the mule. There, he met Sarah Jane Carson and their courtship began. Sarah Jane joined the Christian Church as a young woman and her life was one of patience, goodness and love.

ELIZABETH POWE

41 Elizabeth Powe dau of William and Harriet or Elizabeth Marcia Pegues Powe b 12 Nov 1809 Chesterfield County S.C. d (before the War) in Franklin Parish, La. m Dr. John Perkins McIntosh who died while the family was in Texas during the war. "Information on this family is from The Richland Beacon-News, Rayville, La. published 11 Jan 1969."

In 1850 Dr. McIntosh bought for $3.00 an acre, a large tract of land which was then Franklin Parish, La. He moved there in 1851 and built his home on the Boeuf River, using cypress, walnut and oak which was cut by the slaves on the plantation. In 1855 the McIntosh family moved to Mobile, Alabama because Dr. McIntosh said "he wanted good neighbors." He persuaded his friend Richard West Hatch from Clark County, Mississippi to join him. In 1858 he sold him 655 acres of land along the Boeuf River and both families moved back to Louisiana and Mr. Hatch built his home across the river from the McIntosh family. During the Civil War Crittenden McIntosh and Buckner Hatch joined the Confederate Army and fought in the battle of Vicksburg. Frank Hatch was in school in Virginia and returned in time to join the wagon train of the two families who fled as refugees to Texas to escape the encroaching Union Army. Later Frank Hatch returned to Louisiana and joined the Confederate Army though only 16 years of age. Many hardships were endured on the trip to Texas. After many months of absence and the death of Dr. McIntosh they returned to Louisiana to find the home still standing although everything else was gone. This home was saved by the faithful slaves who interceded with the marauders to save it.

In 1869 the Hatch and McIntosh families were joined when Frank Hatch married Caroline McIntosh and they moved into the home built by Dr. McIntosh. In 1895 L. C. McIntosh, D. Rufus McIntosh, Mrs. Margaret McIntosh and Carrie McIntosh Hatch deeded land for the building of a church. The Union Methodist Church was rebuilt on this same plot after the original church and school was destroyed by a storm in 1916. The McIntosh home was destroyed by a storm in 1959 while occupied by W. H. Baudin husband of Margye Hatch Baudin, and the grounds of the old McIntosh home are now deserted and only a live oak tree that was brought from Mobile, Ala. in a 11 day buggy trip by Eliza Powe McIntosh, stands as a reminder of the past. For more than 100 years this family has been active in community affairs both civic and church. Written by Carrie Hatch Gladney.

William Falconer came first to Charleston, South Carolina as amanuensis for a Dr. Black, a man of literary attainment tho blind. William Falconer settled first at Long Bluff and married Mary Powe they later settled four miles above Society Hill in Chesterfield, S. C. Mr. Falconer was a prominent member of St. David's Society and a leader of the bar on the Pee Dee. He was well educated and thoroughly trained, cool and fearless, shrewd as well as sarcastic and was powerful in debate, he had few equals and no superior. He was the acknowledged head of the Cheraw Bar. In May, 1805 he drove from his home in Chesterfield to Camden a distance of more than 50 miles to council in a murder case. He returned home the same night. This effort brought on a fever from which he died. (History Of The Old Cheraws By Gregg) bile, A at "Blue Home" of Dr. Memorable W. Creagh, Rebecca Clara Ann Creagh b 6 May 1839 Suggsville, Clark Co., Ala. d 17 July 1914 buried at Silver Lake, dau of Gen. Gerard Walthall and Eliza Ann Davis Creagh of Suggsville, Ala. In January, 1859 Thomas Sterling and Rebecca Falconer moved to a plantation in Clarke Co., Miss. known as Silver Lake. Thomas Sterling Falconer and his brother William were active in the presidential campaign of 1860 for Bell and Everett and were an advocate of the State's secession at the outbreak of the war, and both were commissioned a lieutenant at the organization in a company raised in Wayne Co., Miss. called the "Gaines Invincibles." This was a part of the Sixth Battallion, later merged into the 46th Regiment, Miss. Volunteers, which served at Vicksburg, New Orleans and Meridian, Miss. Lt. Falconer was taken ill while searching for supplies and died of typhoid pneumonia at his residence. He was a Captain at his death. His brother William also died of typhoid fever. Rebecca was 24 years old at the time of his death and she lived alone for 50 years in a remote wilderness, operated a large plantation and reared and educated her children. In 1866 she received the "Silver Cup" from Princeton College which at a triennial meeting was agreed that the father of the first child was to receive, and Ann Mary Falconer received the cup. This was graciously received by the mother of Ann Mary from Gen. Alfred A. Woodhull in honor of this distinction.

Lt. Matt Chapman

Lt. Matt Chapman knew he wanted to be a police officer at age seven. When he and his grandfather were stopped at a road block in South Carolina, Chapman said he got a close look at a law enforcement officer and knew at that moment that's what he wanted to become. After three years as a military police officer in the army, Chapman moved to Pascagoula where he began working for the Pascagoula Police Department. Fifteen years later, Chapman said he loves his job. Chapman began his career as a motorcycle officer in the traffic division five years ago and said he wouldn't have it any other way. Chapman says that there is a camaraderie among motorcycle officers and they have become close friends. Chapman, a father of two, said he likes spending time with his kids when he is not working. He also enjoys riding his personal motorcycle and spending time with friends when he is off duty.

COAST OYSTER REEFS TO BE OPENED NOVEMBER 1.

Final Inspection Made by Oyster Commission Permitted—Dredging November 1.

After a final tour of inspection made by all members of the Mississippi Oyster Commission aboard the Alethea Vardaman to the oyster reefs, the commission decided to open all of the reefs with the exception of the Pass Christian and Pass Marian reefs to dredgers Thursday, November 1.

They found the oysters plentiful enough to allow the opening of the reefs at the regular time so that the packing of oysters may begin at the various packing plants along the Mississippi Coast. It is the intention of the commission to have the culling law rigidly enforced.

the cycle of human emotions. In this newest picture play, written for their boy by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coogan, the youthful genius is called upon, in one scene, to sound the deepest of tragic notes. It was the performance of this role and scene that evoked from Will H. Hays his tribute of tears and the remark that "the world needs more pictures like this."

While "Daddy" sounds depths of tragedy, and pathos, it is mainly devoted to the surface of smiles and laughter. Jackie, after every discouragement, plods on, and after every misfortune winds comfort; in the end he achieves complete happiness—if complete happiness is ever found!

Nobody better than Jackie's parents could write a story for him, calculated to explore every angle of the boy's versatile genius. In "Peck's Bad Boy" the impishness of the lad was specially revealed; in "Trouble" the note of pathos was injected with the merriment that is Jackie's birthright; in "My Boy" humor abounded and in "Oliver Twist" the courage, tenderness and nobility of an upright youth were revealed. In "Daddy," the capacity of Jackie Coogan as a tragic emotionalist is so superbly disclosed that his work in this picture will forever stamp him as one of the greatest actors of all time, regardless of age!

"Daddy" is the First National picture and will start a two-day run at the Nelson Theater on Monday.

MANY ATTEND CIRCUS.

Fair sized crowds attended the afternoon an evening performances of Christy Brothers circus here last Friday, and while some of the acts were very creditable, the general appearance of the equipment and personnel was not sufficient to merit general approval of those attending it. The circus departed from Pascagoula to show in Biloxi.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Improvement League Invites Public to Participate in Hallowe'en Entertainment.

An affair, creating a large bit of interest and for which plans are being perfected, is the Hallowe'en entertainment sponsored by the School Improvement League and which will be given Friday evening, November 2 in the auditorium of the new High school building. The program is to be a real Hallowe'en program, and the entire evening will be one of thrills, scares and surprises.

Such uncanny things as "The Ring of Fate," "The Black Cat," "The Chamber of Horrors" and "The Brownie Drill" are being planned to fill the guests with wonder and amazement.

Madame Mauride, a noted palmist, has been secured for the night and is anxious to read fortunes for the guests and lay before them what will happen in the future. It is said this mysterious person has had much experience along this line, and never makes a mistake.

It is learned from those in charge of the entertainment that all the ghosts and witches of the surrounding country have promised to make their final appearance of the year at this occasion, and this will be the only opportunity to see them and find out what they have to tell.

Refreshments of all kinds will be on sale during the evening, and after the program is finished, the auditorium will be cleared and a jazz orchestra will furnish music for youthful feet to spend the remaining hours of the evening in dancing.

All proceeds from the entertainment are to be used by the School Improvement League in carrying on their school work.

OLV is May setting for marriage vows

In an early morning ceremony on May 18 at Our Lady of Victories Catholic Church in Pascagoula, Gina Michelle Walters and Paul Douglas Chapman were united in marriage.

The Rev. Patrick McDermott officiated, with Laurie Chapman as matron of honor and John Chapman standing with his brother as best man. Music was provided by Mitzi Hinman, aunt of the bridegroom.

The bride is the daughter of Betty Rogers of Pascagoula and James D. Walters of Bellingham, Mass., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Chapman of Pascagoula.

The bride wore tea length ivory lace with a matching hat of lace, trimmed with bridal tulle, silk and ribbons. She carried cascading lilies, roses, lilies of the valley, stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy.

A reception followed at LaFont Inn, with Sarah Takas, Sharon Walters and Erin Ryals assisting guests. After a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., the couple is at home in Pascagoula.

Mr. and Mrs. P.D. Chapman
